It is an honor and a privilege to read a great speech from a great President, George Washington. His commitment to the Constitution and the will of the government is honored and revered. His commitment to an indignant America free of to many foreign lands is true to our founders. Most importantly his admonition against too much debt is important for all of us to repeat.
America has change her blessed with great leaders, and greater than George Washington!
