CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE

both in terms of physical existence and in concepts of what we want to do. From the start we have had to proceed without signifi- cant change from our Constitution, and government by consent has been an experiment, and it remains so today. We have nothing but our own reason to guide us; there are no precedents, no precedents. We have only the great names of American political history—were keenly aware of the responsibilities resting upon their decisions. They made no effort to dis- cuss the whole situation, for the government by consent has been an experiment, and it remains so today. We have nothing but our own reason to guide us; there are no precedents, no precedents. The Sergeant at Arms is admonished that the only persons who may remain in the Senate are those who have the privilege of the floor. Again, the Chair calls attention to the right that clerks and members of the staffs of committees and subcommittees are allowed on the floor only to assist Senators in the actual discharge of their official duties.

The Senate is now approaching a vote. The present occupant of the Chair does not see how clerks and members of the staff can become members of the rule of the privilege of the floor.

A quorum being present, the Chair submits to the Senate, without debate, the question: Is it the sense of the Senate that the debate shall be brought to a close?

The yeas and nays are required by the rule; and the Secretary will call the roll.

The Chief Clerk called the roll.

The yeas and nays resulted—yeas 71, nays 29, as follows:

The joint resolution as amended was ordered to a Committee of Conference.

The question now is on agreeing to amendments No. 515, proposed by the Senator from Louisiana [Mr. Long], to amendments No. 515, proposed by the Senator from Georgia [Mr. Chambliss], relating to jury trials in criminal contempt cases.

Mr. RUSSELL. Mr. President, a par-
